In the video, you will find me working my way through the New York Times Articles API. To use the API, you need to register for an API key here. Once you have registered for an API key, do the following:

1. Create a `csv` that has all of the New York Times articles that mention Donald Trump in 2016. In the `csv` file, include the following information:

   Publication Date

   Headline

   Byline

   Lead Paragraph

   Word Count

   First Keyword

   Save the code you used to create the `csv` file in `trump.py`

2. Create a `csv` that has all of the New York Times articles that mention Hillary Clinton in 2016. In the `csv` file, include the following information:

   Publication Date

   Headline

Byline

Word Count

First and Second Keywords

Save the code you used to create the `csv` file in `clinton.py`
